The Avenue Verte London <> Paris

---

Départ Maisons-Laffitte	Arrivée Chaussy
Durée 3 h 15 min	Distance 48,99 Km
Niveau I begin / Family	Thématique In forest

This stage takes you into a haven of green open spaces. Your journey through Saint-Germain-en-Laye forest will bring you to Conflans-Ste-Honorine and thence to the heart of the Vexin Natural Regional Park which will delight you with its lovely unspoilt landscapes. Old villages, manor houses and chateaux, pretty private homes and of course the natural world are all awaiting you. You can choose between two different Avenue Verte routes : the Oise Valley via Auvers-sur-Oise, Chantilly... or the Normandy track via Giverny and Gisors.

The cycle route

You start this stage of the Avenue Verte London-Paris cycle route with a short crossing of the Saint-Germain-en-Laye forest to reach Conflans-Sainte-Honorine. Then cycle paths built on a former railway line from Neuville to Cergy-Pontoise. From Courdimanche, small roads that lead quickly through the French Vexin countryside. From Vigny to Villarceaux, the cycle route follows a succession of small roads with low traffic and roads and paths for cars and paths.
